

In Memory of
Earl Leonard Moulder
1929 - 2020

Obituary of Earl Leonard Moulder

Earl Leonard Moulder, age 90, of Macks Creek, Missouri passed away Wednesday, February 12, 2020 at Cox Medical Center South in Springfield, Missouri. Earl was born May 19, 1929 in Macks Creek, Missouri to Howard and Lillie (Degraffenreid) Moulder. On July 17, 1950, Earl was united in marriage to Jessie Helen Noland. They shared 60 years together when she preceded him in death on January 6, 2011. Earl served in the United States Army during the Korean War. After he returned, he worked for 35 years as a mechanic at a gas company in Kansas City, Missouri. He was a member of Branch Assembly of God Church. He enjoyed spending time outdoors fishing, hunting, and going on float trips. Earl is survived by his daughter-in-law Kathy Moulder of Macks Creek, Missouri; his son Randy Moulder and wife Mary Lou of Macks Creek, Missouri; five grandchildren Dustin Moulder, Sarah Moulder, Jason Moulder and wife Meredith, Vanessa Sawyer and husband Robert, and Kyle Moulder; two step-grandchildren William Supitilov and Lee Supitilov; brother-in-law James Noland of Osage Beach, Missouri; nine great-grandchildren; three step-great-grandchildren; and 1 great-great-grandchild; his brothers Jimmie Moulder and wife Katie of Knob Noster, Missouri and Jackie Moulder and wife Carolyn of Macks Creek, Missouri. Earl was preceded in death by his parents Howard and Lillie Moulder; his wife Jessie Helen Moulder; his son Rodney Moulder; his brothers Donald Moulder and L.Z. Moulder; and his sister Wanita Cowen. Funeral Services will be held at 2:00 pm on Saturday, February 15, 2020 at Branch Assembly of God Church in Branch, Missouri. The family will welcome friends for visitation at 5:00 – 8:00 pm on Friday, February 14, 2020 at Hedges-Scott Funeral Home in Macks Creek, Missouri. Interment will be held at Hopewell Cemetery in Tunas, Missouri following services. Memorials are suggested to Branch Assembly of God.