Jason had his little Yorkies LIV and Ziva that followed him everywhere and were always the first to greet him at the door when he got home from work. He loved his Kansas City Chiefs and Royals. Jason enjoyed smoking meat, cooking on his Blackstone, and feeding everyone, including friends, family, and neighbors. In the past few years, Jason took up running and ran 4-6 miles a day. He was known at the gym as "long hair Jason." Jason's favorite days of the year were the day he opened the family pool and Halloween. Jason attended trivia night on Monday nights with family and friends. The trivia team name was "Goonies Never Say Die." He never knew a stranger and would go out of his way to help anyone who needed a hand or just a chat over a beer.
