Larry was a kindhearted husband, a caring brother, a larger-than-life Dad, PaPa/Pops and Super Pop, as well as an all-around great guy to a host of in-laws, out-laws, extended family and friends. He was always quick to offer a hand, a tool, or simply jump in beside you and help. He loved spending time with his family and friends, sharing his love of hunting with his family, helping with projects no matter how big or small, riding 4-wheelers and side-by-sides, and spending time at the Farm. He was always up for going on a trip or finding the next adventure, whether it was sunning in Mexico, riding with "the kids" at the sand dunes, or riding with family and friends in the hills and mountains. His legacy will forever live on through the memories and stories shared by all who were fortunate enough to have known and loved him. Always remember: "Who loves ya baby?" and "It's your world, and I'm just livin' in it".

A visitation to honor Larry will be held on Monday, November 15, from 5-7:00 p.m., with a memorial service to follow, at 7:00 p.m., both at the Speaks Suburban Chapel, 18020 E. 39th Street in Independence, MO.
